Four P's of Professionalism - June Durr

June Durr's presentation on professionalism is a great way to complete our wonderful year of programs. With her 35 years of marketing and public relations experience in the public/private sectors in the Los Angeles, Orange County and Inland Empire regions, you could say she is the "Ultimate Professional." Her many, many accomplishments include two terms as Marketing and Public Affairs Director and Press Secretary for San Bernardino Mayor Judith Valles and, currently, marketing consultant to the Economic Development Agency-City of San Bernardino where she started its first marketing department.

A former fashion model, June's career and volunteer activities include many "firsts." She created professional dress and career workshops for women, established Southern California's first mall teen board and was the first to train and include physically challenged teens and young adults in fashion shows and advertising. She is the Founder of the 21-year San Bernardino Symphony Debs/Red Tie Guys, a one-of-a kind high school music appreciation program. She established public/private programs for children's manners and etiquette classes, and previously coordinated and commentated three annual fashion shows for the University of Redlands Town and Gown event and is, herself, a Town and Gown honoree.

In addition to her traditional Weber College educational and industry professional credentials, June is a mid-life Cum Laude "Marketing Communications" graduate of the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in Los Angeles (FIDM), and holds a Marketing Certificate from the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). She has received two Polaris Awards (highest honors) for marketing excellence from the Public Relations Society of America.

June is a current speaker/author and certified member of CLASS - Christian Leaders and Authors Speaker Services, and is working on a series of children's books that address social issues under "The Adventures of Malia Mouse" story-line named after her first granddaughter, Malia June. Twice a cancer survivor, her next personal focus is creating awareness for prosthetic advancement for people with special needs under a campaign she calls "Out on a Limb." Her lifelong motto is: "Don't follow where the path leads, instead find a new path and blaze new trails." She is certainly a shining example of how well that motto works.

AAUW Mission Statement

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research.

AAUW Background

AAUW founded in 1881, is open to all graduates with an associate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. AAUW is California's most active and diverse organization offering action for equity, personal and professional growth, community leadership, and friendships.

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP YARD SALE!

June 12th is the annual yard sale for Local Scholarship. We will accept donations until noon on June 9th. Donations must be clean and in working condition. Nancy is now accepting donations. If the items are large call and we can arrange for pickup. If everyone could give a few hours helping to organize and price, it would make the job of getting ready much easier on everyone. Call Nancy if there any questions. Just remember the wonderful stories of the girls that received the scholarships this past year. They were very touching. Let us make some women "happy" again this year.

Ann Harding, Local Scholarship Co-Chair

2010-2011 Programs

Got ideas? If you have suggestions for speakers or programs for next year, you're invited to join the Program Committee. This committee is open to everyone and only meets twice. The first meeting will be Saturday, June 12 at 9:00 a.m. at my home when we will brainstorm ideas. The second meeting will be June 26 at 9:00 a.m. at my home to finalize the schedule. Everyone is welcome. If you're unable to attend, please call or send suggestions to me before June 12.

Ellen Schollenberger, Program Vice-President

On-Line Membership Renewal available soon

As you know our membership drive is on-going from April to June 30 via cash or check to our Redlands branch. Our Association has been working for some time now to convert membership renewal to an on-line process for those wishing to do so. Our Association just recently announced that the on-line renewal process is ready, now each branch must go through a set up process. Kathy Presnell-Best and I are working with Association to get our branch prepared to receive branch dues. It is expected that we will be able to renew our dues on-line by the end of May.

When the set-up process is complete, you will log on to www.aauw.org and access Member Services Database, the system will step you through registration using your member number (listed in our yearbook) and a password and then a credit card. You will receive immediate notification that your renewal is being processed. The branch President and Treasurer will immediately be able to see who has renewed on-line. Association will keep its share of your dues and send your state dues and your branch dues to our banks respectively.

If you have not yet renewed your membership, you may continue to send checks to our PO Box or wait until the end of May and submit on-line.

Audio Book Lending Library

As you prepare to go on vacations, remember to rent a CD for $5.00 a month at the branch meeting. Proceeds go to the Local Scholarship fund. We are getting new CDs in each month.

Local Scholarship Co-Chair: Ann Harding

Book Cassette and CD Groups

The Book Cassette groups are seeking new members to join in this fun and educating time to read. Our groups meet to discuss the books they "read" over the year and to choose the books they all want to hear. Each member purchases a book-on-tape or CD and receives the book back at the end of the cycle. The member then keeps the book, or loans it to the AAUW CD rental table (with those funds going for scholarships), or donates the book to Smiley Library (for a possible tax write-off). Our CD Group chaired by Sally Trost completes their cycle the end of November, so phone her now to be included in their planning. In our round-robin schedule we allow 6 weeks for each book.

Chairs: Nelda Stuck; Sally Trost (CD Group)

Duplicate Pairs: 2nd Saturday, 7 p.m. Coordinator: Louise Schumann

The two daytime groups already have fixed tables and are only accepting substitutes. If you are interested in being a part of a third daytime group that would meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month call Louise Schumann.

Chair: Louise Schumann

California Cuisine and Conversation

California Cuisine and Conversation will meet Sunday June 6 at 6:00 PM. We will gather at the home of Jane and Michael Henry. Please bring all food items fully prepared and ready to serve. Either bring copies of your recipe to share or email them out to the group. We may have a dining out experience this summer so bring the name of your favorite restaurant. Contact Kim Roman.

Chair: Kim Roman

Ushers Needed

We have a date for ushering at the summer Redlands Bowl: Saturday, July 24. The Bowl Association is asking us to have 15 people available for that night. Great Decisions

Our wonderful discussion groups have come to the end of our course, but if you would like to be sure of its coming back next year Frank Begleiter appeals to us to send a contribution to the Foreign Policy Assn. at 470 Park Ave. South, New York, N.Y. 10016-6819.

Chair: Mary Jane Auerbacher

I Am, Therefore I Think (Sum Ergo Cogito)

We would like to thank Dorothy Richardson for a heart warming and eye opening discussion at our last meeting, April 28th, on the powerful impact animals make in so many of our lives. We are now looking forward to a provocative discussion on May 26th, led by Ellen Schollenberger, from, The Book of Questions, by Gregory Spock PhD. This is the third year we've insisted that Ellen ask us more questions, because the discussions have been great!

Our final meeting for the year will be on June 24, 2010, the 4th Wednesday of the month. This final meeting will be a luncheon held at Marie Callender's Restaurant in Redlands, instead of our usual "brown bag" lunch at the Trinity Episcopal Church. We will meet at noon and plan the discussion topics for the coming year.

It's a wonderful way to end the year and a sure fire way to begin looking forward to the coming year. Do plan to join us and share the fun.

Questions: Helen Webb

Reading and the Rainbow

We will not meet in June. Reading selections for the year will be decided by email or US Mail so watch for notices of books nominated at the May meeting. We will resume meeting in July, skip August, and then will meet monthly till December.

If you have any thoughts or suggestions about how having two sessions is working, please let us know. We especially need your feedback if you will be unable to attend the May meeting. Contact: Pat or Kathy.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

The President's Corner

A super big THANKS to Leslie Priest, Roslyn Dunn, and Olga Cupp, members all, for an informative and fun technology evening. The meetings have just been wonderful this year thanks to Ellen Schollenberger and her great committee.

The Local Scholarship yard sale will again provide for several local re-entry women to continue their educational goals. The more we give, the more we can sell. Everyone wins!

While I'm at it, there are so many terrific women to thank for such a wonderful year I can only say I appreciate each and every one of you. This is a large organization and it could not function without the help of as many people as possible. PLEASE, please, please say yes if asked to volunteer your time and energy to help keep us moving. It has been an honor to have represented you as our President this past year.

June's meeting promises to be just as exciting with Jane Durr presenting on Professionalism. It will also feature our Installation of Officers for next year. Don't forget to get your dues renewed in whatever manner you choose, Internet, at the meeting, or snail mail!

Kathy Presnell-Best
