Mix and Mingle with Numbers in November

When someone mentioned the challenge that new and recent members have in connecting with our large AAUW branch, the Membership Committee hit on an idea: table numbers in November. Mixing and mingling will facilitate not only new and recent members getting to know each other, but long-time members as well. It will also provide an opportunity for members to invite others to their favorite AAUW interest groups, and share their enthusiasm for the Math-Science conference and other annual branch projects. If you are bringing a guest or a member attending for the first time, you will be seated together.

We hope that table numbers at the November meeting will facilitate members to try something different. With this year's theme of "Expanding Your Horizons," we encourage members to sit at tables at branch meetings all year long with at least a couple of women with whom you are not well-acquainted. By being inclusive and expanding our personal circles in AAUW, our branch will continue to grow and positively impact our membership and community.

Membership News

We have great news to share, but first Marie and I want to thank each of you who participated in making our Membership Brunch a success. The result was we gained nine new members.

But the news doesn't stop there! Our Washington D.C. people were so pleased they requested our newspaper coverage, which was sent immediately to National for distribution to other branches. The newspaper coverage was for our opening membership meeting in September. We also had a request on how we did our installation of officers. This information was sent by our president, Dorothy Nordquist, for the benefit of other branches using our theme "Expanding our Horizons."

Please keep looking for new members everywhere you go as new faces brings new ideas which in turn creates growth for our branch. The membership committee will gladly follow up on your leads. We want to reach 200 in membership by Christmas.

Membership Vice President

New Member Coffee

The New Member Coffee will be held on Tuesday, November 18th at 7pm at the lovely home of Kay Dobbertin. Any new prospective member or anyone who has joined recently is invited. Please look around and ask if a person might be interested in joining with us. Tell them about what we do, what are our goals, and great fellowship.

Reservation deadline: November 13th.

I might add that any member can be a recruiter. Just give us their names and phone numbers. Marie Mitchell and myself, Dorothy Richardson will contact them and make them welcome.

Bylaws Update (Part 1 of 2)

This past summer Edna Steinman assisted me in reviewing a variety of Articles in our Bylaws that needed updating. These have been reviewed by the State Bylaws Chair, our Branch Board of Directors, and are now implemented in the Bylaws found in the current Yearbook.

The page number below is a Reference to last year's 2007-2008 Yearbook

36 Art III b., delete "international relations", add "international affairs".

Rationale: Mandate from National.

39 Art VI delete "b.", relabel "c." as "b." Remove Associate Members Reference. Rationale: Membership vote from last year.

39 Art VI Section 3. a. Delete "and subscriptions for associate members". Rationale: New associate members are no longer accepted into AAUW.

40 Art VII Section 1. b. Delete ", a membership treasurer,".

Rationale: Membership vote from last year.

Audio Book Lending Library

Need a good book on tape? Visit the table at each general meeting. Your support and $5 donation benefit the local scholarships given each year to deserving women returning to college. If you have any books on tape or CD that you no longer listen to, please donate them to the Audio CD library so that they can be shared by others members. We also have some CDs that men would enjoy listening to. A list of all titles available for circulation is now available---stop by and pick one up!

Book Cassette and CD Groups

The Book Cassette group is seeking new members to join in this fun and educating time to read. One of our three groups started more than 10 years ago and has just begun its ninth cycle of circulation. The CD group begins its third round-robin July 1st. Some 30 members rotate chosen books on a specific schedule every six weeks. At the conclusion, members meet to discuss the books and to choose their new cycle. Each member purchases a book-on-tape or CD and receives the book back at the end of the cycle. The member then keeps the book, or loans it to the AAUW book-on-tape rental table (with those funds going for scholarships), or donates the book to Smiley Library (for a possible tax write-off).

Chairs: Nelda Stuck; Sally Trost

Y-Home Tour

YMCA Home Tour
Sunday, December 7, 2008.
We are fortunate to have Dave and Marsha Viega's (built in 1901.) We will need 32-34 volunteers. The first shift is 9:15 to 1:00, and the second shift is 12:45 to 4:45. Please sign up at the November meeting or, even better; call me. I need to know whether you can volunteer for first or second shift.
Marilyn Sanden

Bridge Announcement

We were pleased that a number of members signed up at the membership brunch for bridge sections and lessons. As openings arise, you will be notified. New sections can be started as well. Bridge lessons will be offered after the New Year.

Great Decisions

Do come by the Great Decisions table at the December branch meeting and sign up for the Great Decisions group of your choice if you have not already done so. Orders will be placed that month for the study books. Remember the afternoon group will meet at 2:00 on Thursdays starting February 5th and the evening group on Wednesdays starting February 4th. We look forward to your input into these fascinating and newsworthy discussions.

Chair: Mary Jane Auerbacher

I Am, Therefore I Think (Sum Ergo Cogito)

The first "I Am..." meeting will be November 19th at Trinity Episcopal Church with members arriving between noon and 12:30 p.m. The discussion of "Generational and Gender Difference" will be led by Jane Dill.

Chair: Jane Dill

International Affairs

We will meet at 11:30 a.m. on November 11th in the University Club at the University of Redlands. Carla Berlington will speak about Burma. The cost is $14.00 and reservations are due on November 4th. Sign up early.

Chairs: Dorothy Richardson and Barbara Pike

Play Reading

The Play Reading group will meet on November 17th at 7:00 p.m. We will be reading The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams. Call Marcia for details and directions for the meeting.

Chair: Marcia Pifer

Recorder Group

The Recorder players enjoyed playing for you at the Membership Coffee. We are working hard to get ready to play for Art for Heaven's sake on Saturday, October 18th, at 3 P.M. Look for us down in the garden.

In December we will be playing a Christmas program at Family Service Assn. on Friday, Dec. 5th, at 10 A.M. This will be part of the Church Women United Outreach to the Community, so everyone is invited.

Chair: Mary Jane Auerbacher

Reading and the Rainbow

Our book selection for November, Ella Minnow Pea by Mark Dunn, is set on the fictitious island of Nollop, home to Nevin Nollop, the supposed creator of the well-known pangram "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog". This sentence is preserved on a memorial to Nevin Nollop. When letters begin to fall off, the government bans their usage with severe penalties for infractions.

Uncompromising in their enforcement of Nollop's "divine will", the island's council offers one hope to the frustrated islanders: to disprove Nollop's omniscience by finding a pangram of 32 letters (in contrast to Nollop's 35).

The novel's major themes are totalitarianism, freedom of speech and good citizenship vs. freedom, always timely concerns.

The President's Corner

This month is particularly exciting as we meet the scholarship winners on a night a new president is elected. The recipients of AAUW scholarships are women who are continuing their academic pursuits after an interruption in their schooling. Funding for the scholarships comes largely from our annual yard sale which has been proclaimed "the best in the area". Kudos to Nancy Yowell, Ann Harding and Louise Schuman who chair this committee.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the AAUW Educational Foundation which advances educational and professional opportunities for women in the United States and around the globe. Our own EF committee will be holding their Scholarship Benefit this month at the Footlighters Theatre. In celebration of 50 years, we would like to have a sellout at this event. Please circle November 13th on your calendar to attend---with friends. Tickets are available from Karen Skoog and her committee.

With the start of the holidays, we are again participating in the Adopt A Family program which provides a Thanksgiving basket as well as Christmas gifts to a deserving family. AAUW members continue to be generous in their support under the chairmanship of Judy Gates. I encourage you to read the state newsletter, California Perspective, which arrived this month. The message from the co-presidents shared the direction of AAUW in the future years and asked all members to "take action on causes that we hold dear to our hearts". As I look at our Branch and the activities just mentioned, I am confident that we are heading the right way.
